Lesson 26. Characteristic measurement of briquettes

Question Bank

1. The proximate components of the feed materials are _____, _____ and _____.

2. _____ of biomass briquettes is found by observing the weight of known volume of briquette.

3. To assess the water resistance briquette is immersed in water at _____°C for _____ min.

4. Briquettes may be dropped from about 1.5 m height onto a metal plate for 4-5 times to assess the _____ property.

5. The water dipped briquettes which are stable for more than 15 min is considered as _____quality briquettes.

6. Discuss various tests to be conducted in assessing the quality of stored briquettes.